

Right-click "Wireless Network Connection", choose "View Available Wireless Networks

~Click

Driver installation is successful and you can see the icon appears on the desktop taskbar.

When the wireless network is connected, then you can access Internet.